MINISTRY OF STEEL, MINES AND FUEL

(Department of Mines and Fuel)

New Delhi, the 25th May 1960

G.S.R. 822.—The following draft of certain further amendments in the Coal Mines (Conservation and Safety) Rules, 1954, which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 17 of the Coal Mines (Conservation and Safety) Act, 1952 (12 of 1952), is hereby published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 11th July, 1960. Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Government.

Draft Amendments

1. These rules may be called the Coal Mines (Conservation and Safety) Amendment Rules, 1960.

2. In rule 49 of the Coal Mines (Conservation and Safety) Rules, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), after sub-rule (2), the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3) The Board may grant assistance to the owner, agent, or manager of a coal mine which is specially handicapped by adverse factors rendering its working uneconomic, but which, in the opinion of the Central Government, should be maintained in production for the purpose of ensuring the conservation of coal. In such cases assistance shall be granted by the Board—

- (i) with due regard to the circumstances of each case;
- (ii) only in respect of such adverse factors as may, from time to time, be specified by the Central Government as entitling a coal mine to receive assistance, and published by the Board in the Official Gazette for general information; and
- (iii) in accordance with such procedure as may be determined, and not exceeding such rates as may be fixed, by the Central Government, from time to time:

Provided that the existence or otherwise of adverse factors in any coal mine, the extent to which such adverse factors render the working of the coal mine uneconomic, and the amount of assistance, if any, to be granted to the coal mine, shall be determined by the Central Government.

8. In clause (iii) of rule 52 of the said rules the words “towards the expenses involved in carrying out the measures for which assistance is granted” shall be omitted.
